MOTHER, CHILD, DIVORCE. MRS. BELL, LATELY M'GOWN, ASKS LHAVE ANEW TO BEE HER SON.

"He," Says McGewn's Counsels "In This State You Are Living in Adultery"-But the Court Bays There Is No Unpardonable Sin

Mnown to the Law-Decision is Reserved. Mrs. Emma Demorest Bell asked Justice Russell of the Supreme Court resterday so to amend the decree of divorce which Henry P. McGown obtained against her that she shall be parmitted to see at times her 2-year-old son, lenry Demorest McGown.

Mrs. Bell left her husband and went West, where she obtained a decree and then she mar-ried Harry Bell, who had previously boarded in the McGown house. The decree was set aside here in an action of McGown, who obtained an ate divorce with the custody of the boy. Mrs. Bell made the same motion recently be ore Justice Pryor, but it appeared that she had not married Bell again since McGown got his decree, and as counsel for McGown contended that she was living in adultery with Bell in this State, the Judge refused to let her see the boy. He afterward so modified his decision that he permitted the motion to be renewed on the papers before Justice Russell.

Mrs. Bell was present in court yesterday Mrs. Bell was present in court yesterday and seemed deeply affected while her coursel stated that she still has a mother's love and desire to see her child. It was urged that mercy abould temper justice, and that the mother should have a chance to see the child so he should not be brought up in ignorance of her, and might decide in after years if he wanted to keep his mother's affection. On the other hand, it was contended that as the mother had left the child, and that as she is legally but the mistress of Bell in this State, she is entitled to no consideration from the court. Counsel for McGown said that she had not even had the decemey to go to New Jersey and marry Bell again, and he urged that she is without the pale of the court's consideration. The Judge said:

"There is we one outside the pale of the court, no matter who they are. There is no such thing in the eyes of the law as an unpardonable sin. The question raised is of vastly more importance than a case involving a few thousands of dollars. I intend to give the matter serious consideration. The rights of the child are to be considered. The time may come when he may say that he had a right to know of his mother's existence and to see her face. Whatever wrong Mrs. Bell may have done, she is entitled to the consideration of the court. Such questions as these are very difficult for courts to pass upon, but, nevertheless, they have to be decided, and some consideration has to be extended for the errors of the one who has been adjudged guilty of the wrong. The question arises, is she to have a ban publicly placed upon her to prevent her from seeing her child again?" here is no one outside the pale of the court,

HEW ASSIGNMENTS OF JUSTICES. Sweeping Changes for 1800 Blade by the Ap-

The Justices of the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court handed down yesterday some new rules and assignments of Justices for the different parts of the Supreme Court for the coming year. Part VI. as well as Part I. is now assigned to litigated motions. They are all to come up in Part I., but the Judge sitting there is to assign them as he sees fit to Part VI., which is to be occupied with them alone. Cases put on the day calendar are to be called in Parts III. and VII. of the Trial Terms at 10 o'clock in the morning, instead of half an hour later. Another change is that preferred causes in Trial Term, Part II., may be assigned by its Judge to Trial Term, Part XII.

The Appellate Term, to which Justices Daly, Bischoff, and McAdam have heretofore been as signed, is to be held now by Justices Beekman, Gildersleeve, and Giegerich. Justice Beekman has been sitting in the Special Terms and Justices Gildersleeve and Giegerich have divided will put in the rest of the year in Trial Term, Justice MacLean, who sat in Special Terms in 1896 and was relegated to Trial Terms for 1897, will have two weeks in July in Special Term,

Part VI, and will otherwise sit in Trial Term, Part X. Justice Dugro, who will sit most of the year in Trial Term, Part V., will have two weeks in August in Special Term, Part II; and Justice Giegerich will have two weeks in August in Special Term, Part I., and, except for the Appellate Term and two months in the Criminal Term, will sit in Trial Term, Part VI.

It is understood that some of the Judges, who have found the work to which they have been heretofore assigned too burdensome, have asked for some of the changes of assignment here given, so that other Judges may have a share in the heavier work.

J. WALDERE KIRK REARRAIGNED. Mandelbaum, Whom He Shot in the Gerard

J. Waldere Kirk, whose principal occupation is apparently to wear clothes, made his second appearance in the West Fifty-fourth street Police Court yesterday to answer to the charge of shooting Richard S. Mandelbaum on the night of Nov. 13 at the Gerard Hotel, 123 West Fortyfourth street. Kirk was arraigned on the day fourth street. Kirk was arraigned on the day after the shooting for felonious assault and held in $3,000 bail to await the result of Mandelbaum's injuries.

The case was assigned for yesterday, but the yictim of the shooting was still unable to appear in court. A certificate to that effect was received from his physician, Dr. E. Webster Davis, Mandelbaum was shot in the groin and in the chest just above the heart. The bullet over the heart has not yet icen removed.

The case was adjourned to Dec. 7, when, in the opinion of the physician, Mandelbaum was represented in court yesterday by a lawyer who said that the matter would be "fought out to the end." It was said by the lawyer for the complainant that the quarrel which resulted in the shooting was about Mandelbaum's wife.

The Weather.

An area of high pressure, with a moderate cold wave, spread yesterday over all the country east of the Rocky Mountains, causing a light fall of anow as It advanced into the Atlantic States, where there was a good percentage of molature to be condensed. Snow continued to fall in western New York and the New England States yesterday, and there was a snow squall in this city in the afternoon.

The temperature fell ten to twenty degrees in all the States bordering the Mississippi and Missouri Rivers, from Canada to the Gulf, and in all the Atlantio States. Freezing temperatures were reported everywhere east of the Rockies except along the coast south of New Jersey and in the Gulf States.

In this city the first snow of the season fell in the night. It was fair all day except for the snow flurry in the afternoon; highest official temperature 57; lowest 30; humidity 67 per cent.; wind northwest, average velocity 22 miles an hour; barometer corrected. rected to read to sea level at 8 A. tices Gildersleeve and Giegerich have divided their time between the Trial Term, Part I., known as the Criminal Term, and the other Trial Terms. Justices Giegerich and Gildersleeve have been assigned to a month each in the Criminal Term and Justice Fursman to three months in that term.

The Special Term in which most of the patronage coines, are now Parts I., II., and VI. The Judges who have sat here are Lawrence, Pryor, smyth. Truax, Andrews, Beach, and Beekman. Justices Lewrence, Pryor, and Smyth get a full share of this work under the new assignment, and Justices Beekman. Truax, and Beach get but little. Justice Andrew's term expires with the year, and Justice Scott will get very little of this work. Justice Scott will get very little of this work. Justice Scott will get very little of this work. Justice Truax has two weeks in Septiember in Special Term, Part II. This is an important and onerous term of preferred causes, in Special Term, Part II. This is an important and onerous term of preferred causes, in Special Term, Part II. This is an important and onerous term of preferred causes, in which Justice Freedman has previously sat. Justice Beach, who will have two weeks in Suptices MacLean, who sat in Special Terms and Justice MacLean will have two weeks in August in Special Term, Part II., and VII., and will divide the rest of the year in Trial Term.

Part VI.

Justice MacLean, who sat in Special Terms for 1897. Will have two weeks in August in Special Term, Part III. where he will be given to the different Special Terms, and Justice MacLean will have two weeks in August in Special Term, Part III. The Weepold of the received a blow on the head, which knocked ness his boots had been removed and his pockets turned inside out.

Oates made his way to the house. He was placed in bed, and his recovery is doubtful. It was found that he had a compound fracture of the skuil, besides other injuries. The weapon used by the negro was proved to be a milking stool. It was found covered with blood in the barnyard.

The snow last night obliterated the tracks of the assassin, and Sheriff Fitzroy has had hard work tracing him to-day. All the neighboring villages have been searched, and with the assistance of the farmers a negro answering the description given by Oates has been located, and his arrest is expected soon.

Expediting Riverside Prive Viaduet. Commissioner Collis has appointed T. Stewart Williamson to design plans for the new via-duct on Riverside Drive at West Ninety-sixth street. Mr. Williamson is designer and chief engineer for the Union Bridge Company. He will have his plans ready in a few days and the contract for constructing the viaduct will be let this year.
